

nursing older people

January 2006 Volume 17 issue 10

www.nursingolderpeople.co.uk

3 Editorial

news

4-5 News

6 News comment – Paul Burstow

7 News comment – Daniel Allen

8 News comment – Les Bright

9 News comment – Barry Aveyard

feature

10 Keeping out the cold

Winter deaths of older people in Britain remain disgracefully high. Thelma Agnew reports on the latest recommendations

22 Student learning in care homes

Nursing students' views on practice placements in care homes are explored by Maggi Banning and colleagues

25 CPD – Suicide among older people

Risk factors and ways of reducing and containing potential harm are discussed by Jill Manthorpe and Steve Iliffe

31 Promoting adequate nutrition: using artificial feeding

Cheryl Holman and colleagues describe the reasons why artificial feeding may be necessary and how it can be administered resources

33 Journal scan, book reviews, website watch, media watch

opinion

37 Email interview

Karen Smith describes her work as director of nursing/matron at the Royal Hospital Chelsea

38 Lives richly lived

Pauline Ford reports on an event that explored the way student nurses are educated to meet the needs of Britain's growing older population

gerontological care and practice

14 Ask the experts

Consultant nurses discuss non-medical prescribing

16 Getting to grips with general hospital care

Andy Lockwood describes how one trust developed its approach to patient-centred care

20 Safety issues surrounding the use of bedrails

Marcia Rollins reports on how an excessive use of bedrails on a general medical ward triggered an exploration of best practice

General hospital care
see page 16