

nursing older people

March 2006 Volume 18 issue 2

www.nursingolderpeople.co.uk

10

5

36

3 Editorial

news

4-5 News

6 News comment – Paul Dinsdale

7 News comment – Les Bright

8 News comment – Sue Thomas

9 News comment – Antony Smith

feature

10 Beacon of hope

Judy Houlahan describes how a sculpture of light has been created out of past decay in the grounds of Gransha Hospital, Derry, gerontological care and practice

14 Ask the experts

Consultant nurses discuss the single assessment process

16 Spiritual assessment: developing an assessment tool

Jeanette Power considers various methods of spiritual assessment

20 Continence problems in care homes: auditing assessment and treatment

Issues raised following an audit on continence care in care homes are discussed

24 CPD: Depression and dementia: taking a dual diagnosis approach

Jill Manthorpe and Steve Iliffe explore the relationship between depression and dementia, how to distinguish between them and how to support people affected by both conditions

31 Responsible and accountable

Philip Woodrow explains how everyone is accountable and responsible in law for their actions or omissions resources

33 Journal scan

34 Report review, Book review, Media watch, Letters, Website watch opinion

36 Free to choose

Jane Redfern Jones says the government's choice agenda may not be the best option

38 Email interview

Angie Clegg describes her work as nurse consultant for older people and intermediate care in Leeds

39 Positive ageing

Avis Hutt explains how although team working is not a new concept it has taken on a new life

Spiritual assessment see page 16