

TABLE OF CONTENTS

03.17.08

Volume 157, Number 5

41
NO. 8
TARGET,
A TOP DOG

→
70
HONDA'S
SECRET

FORTUNE

FEATURES

THE WORLD'S MOST ADMIRED COMPANIES

41 Innovation Pays Off

The companies that make the grade in our annual ranking have hatched plenty of brilliant ideas. The result? It keeps them strong in good times and bad. BY ANNE FISHER

44 What Makes Apple Golden

The creator of the iPod and iPhone sets a dazzling standard for innovation and mass appeal, spurred by a CEO who wants his products to be perfect in every way. Fortune takes a close look at Apple's magic. Plus: An exclusive interview with Steve Jobs. BY BETSY MORRIS

50 The 2008 List of Industry Stars

All praise is welcome, but it is particularly sweet when it comes from one's peers. That is the psychic trophy for the top companies in 26 industries.

58 The Trouble With Steve Jobs

Jobs likes to make his own rules, whether for computers, backdated stock options, or even pancreatic cancer. The same traits that make him a great CEO drive him to put his company, and his investors, at risk. BY PETER ELKIND

▶ Video The two sides of Apple, at fortune.com/mostadmired.

70 Inside Honda's Brain

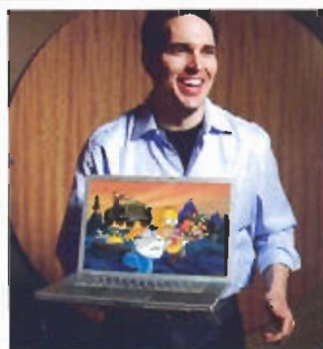

The automaker's habit of poking into odd technical corners sets it apart—and gives it a big edge over the competition. BY ALEX TAYLOR III

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Volume 157, Number 5

23
HULU
NATION
↓

FIRST

12 Traffic Report

Cities across the globe are considering congestion pricing to reduce traffic jams.

BY RYAN DEROUSSEAU

14 ING Dodges the Subprime Crisis

Only 15 foreclosures for the bank since 2000.

BY JON BIRGER

16 The Deal

Stock returns may never be the same—get used to it.

BY ALLAN SLOAN

18 Why Airline Mergers Don't Fly

Delta's bid for Northwest creates a dangerous precedent.

BY BARNEY GIMBEL

19 Scottish Power

Scotland wants to become a global force in marine energy.

BY MATTHEW BOYLE

20 Value Driven

Medicare: The $34 trillion problem.

BY GEOFFREY COLVIN

TECHNOLOGY

23 A New Way to Watch TV

How two old-media dinosaurs—Fox and NBC Universal—created a cool venue for their hottest shows. The inside story of Hulu.com.

BY DAVID KIRKPATRICK AND ADAM LASHINSKY

26 Field Test

Three lightweight laptops for doing business in business class.

BY MICHAEL V. COPELAND

INVESTING

27 Bill Miller Fights Back

The famed investor's flagship fund has a two-year losing streak vs. the S&P 500. He explains his strategy to win again.

BY EUGENIA LEVENSON AND ADAM LASHINSKY

31 Right on Your Money

These days you might just be able to afford that condo by the sea.

BY JON BIRGER

LIFE AT THE TOP

33 Silicon Valley's Cult Ride

The latest status symbol of the technorati is a seriously old-school cycle.

You can get on Brent Steelman's waiting list—if you ace your interview.

BY JESSI HEMPEL

36 Road Warrior

How designer Todd Oldham travels in style.

BY EUGENIA LEVENSON

37 Chimp Change

A fascinating book about the life of Nim, the chimpanzee raised as a human.

BY DANIEL OKRENT

38 Joy Ride

Road-testing the radical new Jag XF with racing legend Dan Gurney.

BY SUE ZESIGER CALLAWAY

8 LETTERS

78 INDEX

80 BING!

Video CNNMoney.com's Poppy Harlow hosts daily news updates, market reports from the Nasdaq MarketSite, and interviews with leaders of Fortune 500 companies at cnnmoney.com/video.