

Psychosocial Nursing®

AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

FEATURE ARTICLES

22 The Right Stuff for Early Intervention in Psychosis: Time, Attitude, Place, Intensity, Treatment, and Cost

An exciting new approach uses these 6 factors for successful early intervention and treatment for young people with psychosis.

Jane E. Hamilton Wilson, RN, BAAN, MHSc, Heather Hobbs, RN, C.B.S., Dip., BScN, and Suzanne Archie, MD, FRCP(C)

32 Forensic Nurses' Views Regarding Medications for Inmates

Improving care of inmates with mental illnesses—including boosting medication compliance and eradicating barriers to treatment—can help reduce recidivism and costs.

Chia-Chen Lee, MS, RN, FNP, Phyllis M. Connolly, PhD, APRN, BC, CS, and Elizabeth O. Dietz, EdD, RN, CS-NP

23 & 24. 2548

40 The Neurobiology of PTSD: Implications for Nurses

Want to know what goes on inside the brains of people with posttraumatic stress disorder? Find out about the neural network model, the role of neurotransmitters, the neurocircuitry model, and more.

Terese M. Olszewski, RN, MSN, APRN-BC, and Jeanne F. Varrasse, RN, MSN, CNS

COLUMN

17 Psycho-pharmacology Grand Rounds
Anticonvulsant Drug Therapies

DEPARTMENTS

4 Tip of the Month NEW

8 Editorial
Money or Well-Being: Which Do You Prefer?

12 Letters to the Editor

14 News

16 Product Update

21 Tribute
Nell Watts, RN, MSN, FAAN

29 Guidelines for Authors

48 CE Quiz

52 My Side
Bereavement and Grief Related to the Loss of a Parent

55 NARSAD Art

