

Features

20 Nursing in Tele-Mental Health

This tele-mental health network overcame 5 obstacles to provide much-needed services to battered women. Nurses played a key role, and outcomes were positive.
Poldi Tschirch, RN, PhD; Glenda Walker, DSN, RN; and Linda T. Calvacca, PhD, APRN, BC

29 Interviewing Techniques for the Asian-American Population

Consider these 11 issues when interviewing Asian American/Pacific Islanders to enhance your therapeutic communication and provide culturally sensitive care.
Sue Barrett, PhD, APRN, BC

38 Educational Needs of Inpatients with Severe and Persistent Mental Illnesses: A Partial Replication

Is there a mismatch between what your clients want to know and what you think they should learn? Bridge the gap by asking questions and involving clients.
Gary M. Burlingame, PhD; Nathanael Ridge, BS; Joyce Matsumo, APRN; Anthony D. Hwang, MS; and Dallas Earnshaw, APRN, CNS, BC

Sections

9 Psychopharmacology

Challenges in the Diagnosis and Treatment of Bipolar Depression—Part 2: Treatment Options
 Analyze the pros and cons of 6 treatment options.
Robert H. Howland, MD

13 Aging Matters

Aging Workers: In Search of Employment and Health Insurance Coverage
 Support aging workers using these 5 guidelines.
Nancy L. Falk, BSN, MBA

20

29

38

Departments

- 4 Editorial
- 6 News
- 8 Letter to the Editor
- 19 Product Update
- 44 CE Quiz
- 48 Calendar
- 50 Clip & Save NEW!
- 52 NARSAD Art
- C3 Guidelines for Authors