Mission Statement: The leading voice for the nursing profession since 1900, AJN promotes excellence in nursing and health care through the dissemination of evidence-based, peer-reviewed clinical information and original research, discussion of relevant and controversial professional issues, adherence to standards of journalistic integrity and excellence, and promotion of nursing perspectives to the health care community and the public.

7 Editorial
Having the Courage to Change

10 AJN On the Cover

10 AJN On the Web

11 Viewpoint
We Silence Our Profession When We Fail to Identify Ourselves as Nurses

14 In the News
The ANA House of Delegates Closes Its Doors
Older Women with AF Are at Higher Risk for Stroke
ED Visits from Battery Injuries on the Rise in Children
World Health Assembly Meeting Wrap-Up

18 AJN Reports
Patient Satisfaction Metrics: Customer Service or Quality Care?

20 Letters

21 Drug Watch

35 Art of Nursing
“Big Joe’s Passing,” flash fiction.

57 Journal Watch

65 Evidence for Excellence
Acute Infectious Diarrhea

69 Profiles
Nurse Lights the Way at London Olympics
Original Research: An Inpatient Program for Adolescents with Anorexia Experienced as a Metaphoric Prison
By Lucie Michelle Ramjan and Betty I. Gill
This study describes how the perception of an inpatient behavioral program as a metaphoric prison negatively affected the development of therapeutic relationships between nurses and their patients.

Health Information Technology and Nursing
By Susan McBride, John M. Delaney, and Mari Tietze
This article, the first in a three-part series, examines the federal policies behind efforts to expand the use of health information technology and how this technology impacts nurses.

My Grandfather’s Unpublished Manuscript
By Greta Krapohl
A nurse discovers a manuscript that her grandfather—a 1929 nursing school graduate—wrote in the late 1960s, a time when men’s voices in nursing were virtually silent.

Cultivating Quality: Continuing Education for Patient Care Technicians: A Unit-Based, RN-Led Initiative
By Acieto Small, Lilian Atieno Okungu, and Tamika Joseph
How nurses at one hospital designed and implemented a continuing education program to ensure the delivery of safe, high-quality patient care.

In Our Community: The Korean Nurses Association in New England
By Meekyung Kim, Sun Seog Kim, Kim Choi, and Eun Sil Kim
A group of Korean nurses provides a variety of health services to address major health problems and disparities in the local Korean community.

Reflections: A Man of Few Words
By Kathryn Mason
What we don’t know about our patients.

Index to Advertisers

Careers and Events