

TABLE OF CONTENTS

04.28.08

Volume 157, Number 8

62
SEAFOOD
SPECIAL

→
50
READY FOR TAKEOFF

FORTUNE

FEATURES

24 What Warren Thinks ...

Buffett talks about the economy, the credit crisis, Bear Stearns, and more.

BY NICHOLAS VARCHAVER

30 Where to Put Your Money Now

Even some of the great investing minds are confused. But don't run scared. We found some attractive opportunities, including steel, Microsoft—and cattle futures. BY JON BIRGER
PLUS: Soros Says • What About Bonds? • The Money Trap •

38 The Deal

High-income people aren't getting rebate checks. But they're getting so much more. BY ALLAN SLOAN

40 Should You Rush to Gold?

Some see it as a safe haven, but buying too much has its pitfalls. BY ELIZABETH SPIERS

44 Saving Société Générale

The inside story of how 31-year-old Jérôme Kerviel nearly destroyed the French giant Société Générale, bank CEO Daniel Bouton's dramatic rescue, and the surprising aftermath of the affair. BY PETER GUMBEL

THE BUSINESS OF GREEN

50 Eight Great Green Ideas

Entrepreneurs are risking their money to develop everything from hybrid vehicles to home solar-panel systems.

56 Carbon Finance Comes of Age

The cap-and-trade market for emissions is creating huge new opportunities for business.

BY MARC GUNTHER

62 Wonder Fish

Yes, there is a toxin-free, sustainable farmed fish. And damn if it ain't tasty.

BY JEFFREY M. O'BRIEN

68 Coca-Cola's Green Crusader

CEO Neville Isdell is committed to sustainability. INTERVIEW BY MARC GUNTHER

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Volume 157, Number 8

17
NHL ROAD SHOW →

12
BALANCING ACT
↓

10
STAR VEHICLE

FIRST

8 Waste Not

Britain's Beckton Sewage Treatment Works turns the waste of 3.4 million Londoners into enough energy to power 7,000 homes.
BY RYAN DEROUSSEAU

10 Last One Standing

The Chicago Stock Exchange, the only remaining independent regional exchange, has tried going it alone but is now looking for a buyer.

BY TELIS DEMOS

10 Ford's Hollywood Break

A bigtime product-placement deal on NBC's Knight Rider.
BY MICHAEL V. COPELAND

10 My Metric

Dennis Gartman sees further real estate woes in this year's household summer-vacation plans.

12 CIT Is Everyone's Headache

The decline of the century-old finance company could bring Wall Street's pain to Main Street.

BY MARCIA VICKERS

14 The Three-Minute Manager

My company is being targeted by an activist. What should I do?
BY JIA LYNN YANG

16 Value Driven

CEO pay has risen faster than profits, but there are major obstacles to changing the system.
BY GEOFF COLVIN

17 Road Warrior

NHL commissioner Gary Bettman catches 60 hockey games a year. How does he manage when he's not on home ice?
BY SCOTT CENDROWSKI

TECHNOLOGY

19 Guess Who's Rewriting the Rules of Gaming?

Girls, office drones, and other non-teenage boys hooked on new free-to-play online games. That's who. It's bad news for giants like Electronic Arts; it's good news for startups.

BY DEVIN LEONARD

23 Need to Know

Cool stuff on our radar screen, including knife-proof T-shirts and an over-the-counter DNA paternity test.

BY JIA LYNN YANG

6 LETTERS

70 INDEX

72 BING!