

GERIATRIC NURSING

DEPARTMENTS

FROM THE EDITOR

- 136 Plant a Seed . . . and Maybe a Tree Will Grow
Barbara Resnick

- 139 NEWSVIEW

- 141 CALENDAR

PHARMACY COLUMN

- 142 Management of Lipid Disorders
Barbara J. Zarowitz, Wilbert S. Aronow, Kelly Hollenack, and Terry O'Shea

LEGAL COLUMN

- 149 Medicare Developments and Explanations Affecting Nurse Practitioners
Howard L. Sollins

NGNA SECTION

- 151 Delirium in the Hospitalized Elder and Recommendations for Practice
Ted S. Rigney

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF GERONTOLOGICAL NURSE PRACTITIONERS

- 158 Pharmacology Update
Ann Schmidt Luggen

- 158 Research Update: Gene Therapy May Halt Progression of AMD
Ann Schmidt Luggen

- 159 GNP Care Guidelines: Update on Macular Degeneration
Ann Schmidt Luggen

FEATURE ARTICLES

- 160 Using the Resource Utilization Groups (RUG-III) System as a Staffing Tool in Nursing Homes
Mary Ellen Dellefield

Lessons learned about the advantages and limitations in using RUG-III as a staffing tool.

- 166 Educational Needs of Employed Family Caregivers of Older Adults: Evaluation of a Workplace Project
Linda Cox Curry, Charles Walker, and Mildred O. Hogstel

Employed caregivers report a need for caregiving information; however, they seldom think of their workplace as a valuable resource.

- 174 AIDES to Improving Medication Adherence in Older Adults
Brenda Bergman-Evans

Medication adherence is a challenging clinical problem for health care providers and professionals that care for older adults.