

contents

Features

COVER STORY

52 HR and the Board ▶

More-active corporate boards are seeking more data and input from HR. Here's how to respond. Robert J. Grossman

SAFETY

60 Making Safety Job No. 1 ▶

Effective safety training can teach employees in manufacturing workplaces how to stay out of harm's way. Nancy Hatch Woodward

INTERVIEW

66 The Spirit of Enterprising HR ▶

SHRM's board chair for the next two years aims to raise the threshold of energy and creativity in HR. Terence F. Shea

TECHNOLOGY

72 Avoiding the Perils of Electronic Data ▶

What you don't know about managing and preserving electronic data could hurt your business. Bill Roberts

BENEFITS

78 Lights out for a 401(k) Plan ▶

Know your regulatory, communication and notification duties for shutting down a 401(k) plan. Joanne Samner

EMPLOYMENT & STAFFING

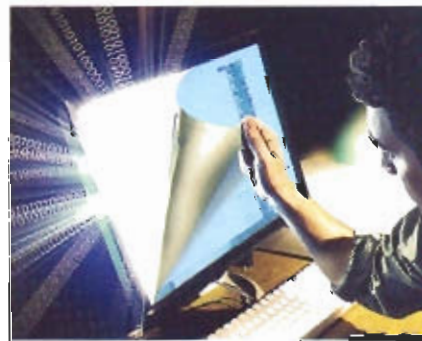

84 Call Centers Come Home ▶

To reap the potential benefits of using home-based call center workers, employers must look carefully at such issues as selection, training and compensation. Martha Frase-Blunt

52

72

95

HR Agendas

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

91 Give Us Your Sick ▶

By providing care for mildly ill children, sick-child care centers help two-income families and their employers. Kathy Gurchick

TRAINING

95 Acting Out ▶

Some employers are using theater-based training to hone their employees' skills and enhance creativity and team building. Jean Thilmann

Columns

107

FROM THE PRESIDENT

10 Workforce Planning Anticipates Change ▶

Workforce planning takes a long view toward acquiring the staff needed for organizational goals. Susan Meisinger

FROM THE EDITORS

12 HR and the board; closing a 401(k) plan; metadata

Adrienne Fox; Terence F. Shea; Desda Moss

HR SOLUTIONS

49 Skills Data, Retirement Benefits, Difficult Employees ▶

John Sweeney, Angela Stone, Naomi Cossack

MANAGEMENT TOOLS

107 Make Meetings Less Dreaded

Prepare, control and follow up on meetings to increase their effectiveness. Stuart R. Levine

LEGAL TRENDS

115 Accommodation Paradigm Shifts ▶

Perceptions matter, particularly when it comes to the Americans with Disabilities Act, as employers are being required to accommodate individuals perceived to have disabilities. Jonathan R. Mook

FUTURE FOCUS

152 Wage Concerns ▶

HR has cause to worry if workers see themselves losing ground financially as the economy improves. Jennifer Schramm

Special Sections

133 Yellow Pages

147 Relocation Buyers' Guide

152

14 Executive Briefing

SOX cost pressures ease; take time to listen to employees; linking CEO pay to performance works; more.

23 From Readers

Employee feedback; SSN no-match rules; more.

27 HR News

New rules require employers to organize e-mails; DOL seeks input on possible FMLA rewrite; work safety, gun rights put HR in the middle; more.

103 HR Technology

Employers are enlisting technology to help link and improve employee and organizational performance.

111 Court Report

Manager who refused to sign agreement must arbitrate; volunteer positions may be treated as employment; more.

123 Inside SHRM

Leadership conference wrap-up; Pinnacle Awards; more.

127 Books in Brief

Demystifying Outsourcing; more.

130 What's New

Workers' comp cost-containment program; contract staffing service; employee leave administration software; more.

150 HR Jobs