

Features

COVER STORY

46 HR's Rising Star in India ▣

Good human capital management in India's most competitive sectors is raising the profile of HR by proving to be a business necessity. Robert J. Grossman

BENEFITS

54 Retiree Drug Coverage Comes Up for Renewal ▣

If you're deciding whether to continue providing retiree drug coverage or send retirees to the Medicare plan, consider these key issues—before the end of September. Pamela Babcock

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

60 Read any Good (Non-HR) Books Lately? ▣

Need some good career advice? Look on the fiction and history shelves! Ann Pomeroy

HEALTH CARE

66 Keeping the Tip-Top in Shape ▣

Supplemental health coverage for top executives can be an investment in business continuity. Carolyn Hirschman

TRAINING

72 Make the Most of Team Building ▣

Effective team building begins with assessing the team's needs and selecting the right activity. Nancy Hatch Woodward

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

78 Stress Management ▣

Helping employees reduce and manage stress—whether it originates on or off the job—can improve productivity and morale in the workplace. Kathryn Tyler

HR Agendas

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

117 Rewarding Exempt Employees ▣

Employers are not required to pay overtime to exempt employees, but many companies are finding ways to reward and motivate these workers. Susan Ladika

EMPLOYMENT & STAFFING

123 Quick-Decision Hiring ▣

Conventional hiring wasn't fast enough for one company, so it picked up the pace and now often decides on the basis of an applicant's attitude. Terence F. Shea

46

- 8 M.A. 2549

Columns

FROM THE PRESIDENT

10 On Sept. 11 Anniversary, Be Prepared Is Watchword ■

Preparing for disasters, whether natural or man-made, is a responsibility of HR.
Susan Meisinger

FROM THE EDITORS

12 HR in India; post-Sept. 11 discrimination; speedy hiring

Adrienne Fox; Leon Rubis; Terence F. Shea

HR SOLUTIONS

43 Drug Tests, Pay Deductions, Mandatory Retirement ■

Amy Maingault, Lisa Orndorff and Liz Petersen

MANAGEMENT TOOLS

137 In the Face of Adversity

Layoffs present an opportunity for you to shine as a manager—and lead your team through hard times. Paul Falcone

LEGAL TRENDS

149 Tailor Non-competes to a T ■

You can't always prevent competitors from stealing your top talent, but a custom-tailored non-compete agreement can safeguard your competitive advantages. Stephen L. Richey

FUTURE FOCUS

216 Targeting Retention ■

Employers' decisions on retaining workers will vary by industry sector. Jennifer Schramm

Special Section

179 Benefits Buyers' Guide

SHRM Insert

Research Quarterly:
Maximizing
Human Capital
(after page 128)

149

14 Executive Briefing

Small businesses benefit from effective HR practices; executives struggle to find work/life balance; more.

23 From Readers

Labor-cost metric; organizational ombuds; more.

27 HR News ■

Post-Sept. 11 discrimination remains a concern; Congress passes monumental pension reform; 'Wal-Mart' health care law overturned; more.

131 HR Technology ■

Using online 'auditions,' employers can make sophisticated assessments of job candidates, saving time and money.

145 Court Report ■

Retraction of discipline for falsified resume did not defeat claim; rubber-stamped recommendation to fire challenged; more.

159 Inside SHRM ■

Preview of Strategic HR and Diversity conferences; more.

165 Books in Brief

The Comprehensive, All-in-One HR Operating Guide; more.

175 What's New ■

Benefits management software; online financial skills assessment; student intern management system; more.

210 HR Jobs