

Nursing Management

www.nursingmanagement.com

Vol. 37 No. 5

May 2006

- 3 5.0. 2549

Practice Challenges Special

FEATURES

- 22 Vascular safety: It's all about PICCs Optimal catheter and vein selection prove vital to patient safety initiatives.
By Nancy Moureau, CRNI, BSN
- 28 Nurse collegiality: Fact or fiction? Learn practical solutions to reduce horizontal violence in the workplace.
By Jane J. Baltimore, RN, CCRN, CS, CPAN, MSN
- 37 Research to practice: Don't get lost in translation Successfully communicate evidence with fact and follow up.
By Lynn Moyer Block, RN, CNA, MSHA, and Bridget A. LeGrazie, RN, AOCN, APNC, MSN
- 41 Nursing in the dark: Leadership support for night staff Easing some burdens on nighttime nurses can improve performance and retention.
By Colleen Claffey, RN, CEN, BSN
- 45 How to open new nursing units: A blueprint for success A focused development strategy and structured administrative support enable a facility to expand its outreach.
By Beth Torres, RN, CCRN, BSN, MEd

CE CONNECTION

IMMEDIATE CE TEST PROCESSING
See our Web site at www.nursingmanagement.com.

- 50 Practice Challenges test Earn 5.0 continuing-education credit hours by taking this test based on the preceding Practice Challenges articles.

DEPARTMENTS

- 6 Editorial
8 Visionary Leader 2006 NEW
10 Recruitment & retention report
14 Legal checkpoints
18 Ethics in practice NEW
20 JCAHO solutions
52 Tech update
53 Management marketplace
55 Advertisers' index
56 Consider this

Online only CE special!

HAI prevention: The power is in your hands

Review evidence-based recommendations for hand hygiene and prevention of healthcare-associated infections (HAIs) such as ventilator-associated pneumonia, urinary tract infection, surgical site infection, and catheter-related bloodstream infections. Participants can earn 3.0 contact hours. Visit <http://www.nursingcenter.com/NMGOJO>. Supported by an educational grant from Gojo Industries

Cover illustration: Paul Anderson

Nursing Management is proud to be endorsed by the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF CRITICAL-CARE NURSES

Proud Platinum Sponsor of NURSES
for a Healthier Tomorrow

★
ASHPE
American Society of Healthcare Publication Editors
2005 Award Winner

Trade Association Business Publications International
2005 Award Winner

Celebrate National Nurses Week
May 6 to 12

This year's theme:
Nurses: Strength, Commitment, Compassion

NEXT MONTH

CE: Wound care
Nursing peer review
Pain management advances

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide strategic professional information and services that nurses need to excel as healthcare leaders