

Nursing Management®

15 N.A. 2549

www.nursingmanagement.com

Vol. 37 No. 6

June 2006

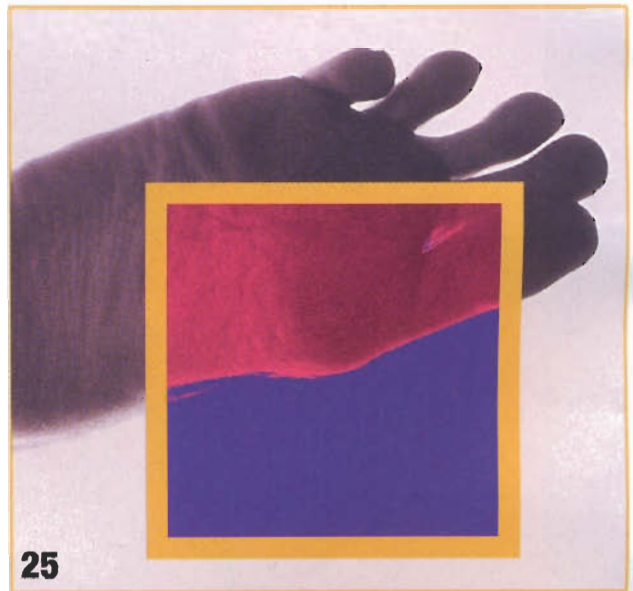

FEATURES

- 20 Patient safety: Through the eyes of your peers
*Increase nursing accountability and reduce the potential for adverse events with a peer review model. By Karen Bry, RN, BA, CPHQ, Barbara Stettner, RN, APN, MSN, and Jann Marks, RN, CNA, BC, MBA

CE CONNECTION IMMEDIATE CE TEST PROCESSING
 See our Web site at www.nursingmanagement.com.

- 25 Step up care for diabetic foot ulcers *Help patients prevent a common diabetes complication that threatens life and limb. By Mary Y. Siegreen, RN, APRN, BC, CVN, MSN
- 34 Policy and procedure management: A job that's never done *Accreditation, technology, procedures, and medications call for a constant focus on creating new or revising current regulations that govern nursing practice. By Kathleen Hudson, RN, MS, MBA
- 39 Create a blueprint for successful hospital construction
*Smoothly transition a department, staff, and patients from old to new areas. By Rosemary Czarnecki, RN, BSN, MPM, and Cynthia Havrilak, RN, MSN
- 45 Shared governance and EBP: A logical partnership?
*The Albert Einstein Healthcare Network believes the utilization of shared governance and evidence-based practices equate to solid, successful nursing. By Patti Zuzelo, APRN, BC, CS, EdD, Terry B. McGoldrick, RN, MSN, Peggy Seminara, RN, BSN, and Heather Karbach, RN, MSN

25

DEPARTMENTS

- 6 Editorial
- 8 Visionary Leader 2006 NEW
- 10 Recruitment & retention report
- 13 Information technology
- 16 Best of the basics
- 18 Ethics in practice NEW
- 51 Career scope
- 52 Tech update
- 53 Management marketplace
- 55 Advertisers' index
- 56 Consider this

Cover illustration: Michael Trinsey

Nursing Management is proud to be endorsed by the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses.

NEXT MONTH

CE: Holistic environments
 Nursing Management exclusive:
 Aging Workforce Survey 2006
 Magnet hospital series

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide strategic professional information and services that nurses need to excel as healthcare leaders