Features

Special report
13 Workplace Violence Survey 2008
Unsettling findings: Employee safety isn't the norm in our healthcare settings.
By Richard Hader, RN, CHE, CPHO, NE, BC, PhD, FAAN

20 Malpractice maladies
Awareness and initiative can help you avoid legal consequences.
By Penny S. Brooke, APRN, MS, JD

28 Ergonomics standards: An overview
Know your part in establishing programs in skilled nursing facilities, hospitals, or assisted-living settings.
By Scott Weber, APRN, MSN, EdD

34 The DNP… Why now?
Several broadscale healthcare factors influenced nursing policy makers to roll out the doctorate of nursing practice degree in the midst of a national shortage.
By James A. Fain, RN, BC-ADM, PhD, FAAN, Marilyn Asselin, RN, BC, PhD, and Mary McCurry, RN, C, ANP, ACNP, PhD

38 Specialty focus: The Magnetic pull
Administrators from two decorated facilities share with Nursing Management the various Forces of Magnetism that enhance their system's care quality and daily operations.
A staff report

Next month
CE: Heart disease and women
Congress2008 preview
Nursing huddles

Congress2008: Register now!
For details, see page 50 of this issue.

Vol. 39 No. 7
July 2008

Nursing Management
www.nursingmanagement.com

CEConexction
IMMEDIATE CE TEST PROCESSING

Departments
6 Editorial
8 Recruitment & retention report
10 Evidence-based nursing
51 Tech update
54 Advertisers' index
56 Management marketplace
58 Leadership Q&A

Nursing Management is pleased to be endorsed by the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses and the Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society.

MISSION STATEMENT
To provide strategic professional information and services that nurses need to excel as healthcare leaders.