

4 | TO OUR READERS

6 | INBOX

Japan's Shinzo Abe
Under siege, page 15

BRIEFING

9 | THE MOMENT Late July's stock-market downturn may signal a return to volatility

10 | DASHBOARD A new congressional ethics package for the U.S.; how gas prices can fall even as oil prices rise

11 | SPOTLIGHT U.S. arms deals with Arab states are part of a plan—to contain Iran

12 | VERBATIM Robert Mugabe gives a novel economics lesson; tipping astronauts get a sober dressing down

13 | PEOPLE Steven Spielberg's close encounter with China; Dylan gets tangled up and remixed; Usher's cold feet at the altar

14 | MILESTONES

COMMENTARY

15 | BRYAN WALSH Abe's election setback may herald a new era in Japanese politics

Usher
Wedding crasher, page 13

PAGE 4 9 15 16 43 49 53 62

Wild ride India is reveling in its new stature, page 16

One in a billion A family's history mirrors India's, page 18

On the cover: Photograph by Kevin Schafer—Corbis

THE WELL

COVER STORY

16 | YOUNG GIANT 60 years after gaining independence, India is just beginning to tap its potential as the nation bids for superpower status

18 | GENERATIONS One family's journey from partition to the present

24 | A HOUSE DIVIDED Islam has always united Pakistan. Now, it's tearing the nation apart

34 | BODM K.P. Singh built a billion-dollar real estate empire while building modern India

40 | POLITICS The miracle of India's democracy is that it endures

42 | ESSAY Why India's rise should come as no surprise

LIFE

43 | TRAVEL More and more tourists are signing up for volunteer vacations. Are they out to save the world, or just on a guilt trip?

45 | HISTORY Politics and science have always been a combustible mix

46 | CURIOUS CAPITALIST The feud over China's currency heats up

47 | ENVIRONMENT One parched Australian state tries to make rain

GLOBAL BUSINESS

49 | INVESTING Hedge-fund managers gather in Las Vegas to sip bubbly and talk trends

51 | WORK IN PROGRESS With health-care costs skyrocketing, some U.S. companies are pressing workers to shape up

ARTS

53 | MOVIES Matt Damon and director Paul Greengrass remake the summer action thriller by keeping it real

56 | APPRECIATION Woody Allen on his cinema idol, director Ingmar Bergman

Matt Damon
Bourne to run, page 53

62 | ESSAY The hazy bliss of a week spent crisscrossing the planet