UNITED STATES

IN THE ARENA: Democrats criticizing President Bush's wiretapping program are playing with political fire..... 15

POLITICS: Spreading money far and wide, superlobbyist Jack Abramoff all but bought off Washington. Now that he's cut a deal with prosecutors, one of the biggest scandals in the capital's history is set to explode..... 26

SOCIETY

GOLD: Indians have long preferred to store their wealth in gold, and despite the precious metal's precipitous price rise, their appetite for it is only increasing as the nation grows richer..... 38

COVER STORY

Fallen Warrior In the wake of their leader's massive stroke, Israelis grapple with the prospect of life without Ariel Sharon..... 16

LEGACY: Always controversial, always commanding, Sharon has left a lasting stamp on the Middle East. But the question of what he has achieved will be answered by what comes next..... 22

SCIENCE

SPACE: Designed to travel at record speeds, the New Horizons space probe is bound for the far reaches of the solar system..... 40

SPORTS

TENNIS: Molded by a socialist training system, Chinese women are storming the global rankings in what was once a decidedly foreign sport..... 42

ARTS

MUSIC: 250 years after his birth, the titanic composer has become the ultimate music therapist..... 44
