

BRIEFING

13 | THE MOMENT A tornado in Kansas whips up memories of Katrina

14 | DASHBOARD Who's in line to replace Paul Wolfowitz at the World Bank?; a global guide to mothers' woes

15 | SPOTLIGHT Condoleezza Rice breaks the U.S.'s silence with Syria

16 | VERBATIM Avril Lavigne sings in tongues; John McCain vows to hunt down Osama bin Laden; a royal gaffe by George W. Bush

17 | PEOPLE Paris Hilton gets jail time; David Hasselhoff chows down; mixed reviews for TV spin-offs

18 | MILESTONES

COMMENTARY

21 | PETER BEINART Around the world, democracy is in retreat. How to save it?

Jordan's Queen Rania
ro questions, page 6

6 | 10 QUESTIONS

8 | INBOX

Nigeria's flawed election
Freedom in decline, page 21

PAGE 6 | 13 | 21 | 34 | 45 | 49 | 55 | 62

Big score English football is on a winning streak, page 34

U-turns ahead Mitt Romney on the campaign trail, page 22

On the cover: Photograph by Phil Noble—Reuters. Insets, from left: Melanie Frey—EPA; J. Scott Applewhite—AP; AP

THE WELL

22 | UNITED STATES Walking contradiction Mitt Romney's wavering convictions are hurting his presidential bid

30 | WORLD Change at the top Britain's Gordon Brown and France's Nicolas Sarkozy can bring their countries closer than they've been in years

COVER STORY

34 | BUSINESS Britannia rules How England's Premier League soccer clubs came to dominate the global game

42 | ASTRONOMY Death of a star A distant sun went out with the biggest bang ever recorded

LIFE

45 | MEDIA Rupert Murdoch's bid for Dow Jones may write the obituary for family-run media companies

47 | RELIGION Making Buddhism Thailand's state religion could harm both the country and the faith

48 | HISTORY The Indian Mutiny of 1857 offers a cautionary lesson on sectarian and religious conflict in Iraq

GLOBAL BUSINESS

49 | LIVING How U.K. clothing chain Topshop stays on the cutting edge of fashion

52 | SMALL BUSINESS Internet company Blurb opens a new chapter on self-published books

ARTS

55 | EXHIBITIONS Paris' past is revisited in a new show of photos by Eugène Atget

57 | MUSIC Singapore's undiscovered virtuoso

58 | BOOKS When Nixon met Kissinger

Paul Ponnudurai
Barroom balladeer, page 57

62 | CHECKOUT Harry Potter books we'd like to see published