

2 | 10 QUESTIONS Rolling Stone Ron Wood on death, drugs, money and Impressionist art

5 | INBOX

18 | POSTCARD: NEW DELHI

Flight school Indians learn to love air travel, page 18

BRIEFING

9 | THE MOMENT Turks and Kurds at a crisis point

10 | DASHBOARD Promoting online poker in Washington; the pressure on Pakistan's President

11 | SPOTLIGHT Bush's hard line on Cuba can help the Castro brothers

14 | VERBATIM Dick Cheney shrugs off his nickname; Japan's Prince Tomohito on the stress of being in the royal family

16 | PEOPLE Pavarotti leaves behind some fearsome debts; Jerry Seinfeld defends his wife's new book

17 | MILESTONES

COMMENTARY

19 | SIMON ELEGANT China's President has strengthened his grip in Beijing, but out in the provinces problems remain

George Clooney Green is good, page 16

PAGE 2 | 9 | 1920 | 35 | 39 | 45 | 54

Long road ahead Bhutto's challenges mount, page 30

Red hot Southern California in flames, page 20

On the cover: Fires: Photograph by Robert Gauthier—Los Angeles Times; Bhutto: Photograph for TIME by Paula Bronstein—Getty Images. Insets: Fires: Ann Johansson—Getty Images; Bhutto: Paula Bronstein—Getty Images for TIME; Meals: Getty Images; Stoppard: Dave Benett—Getty Images

THE WELL

ON THE COVER

20 | UNITED STATES California Ablaze Wind, drought and—more than ever before—man's impact are responsible for a wildfire disaster

30 | ASIA Hard Homecoming A deadly bombing, terrorism, high economic expectations and a radically changed political landscape: it's been a tough landing for Pakistan's Benazir Bhutto

34 | SOCIETY Unhappy Matrimony Indian brides ditched by overseas husbands are fighting back

LIFE

35 | FOOD Famous chefs from Neil Perry to Jamie Oliver discuss what they'd want for their last meals—and their simple choices say much about human nature

38 | TECHNOLOGY RFID tags are changing the way we keep track of everything from books to pets. But would using them in humans be a good idea?

GLOBAL BUSINESS

39 | STRATEGY Food and beverage giant Danone ditches the cookies for a healthier focus

44 | THE GOLF GAME A Tiger Woods–designed development tests the U.S. market for luxury golf communities

ARTS

45 | THEATER Tom Stoppard talks about playwrighting, politics and Pink Floyd

50 | PERFORMING ARTS A new life for China's ancient Kunqu opera

Tom Stoppard Just don't call him highbrow, page 45

54 | ESSAY J.K. Rowling has outed her wizard. But, John Cloud asks, is that really a triumph for gay rights?