

13 0.9. 2550

4 | 10 QUESTIONS

Astronaut Buzz Aldrin on diapers, aliens and why we're not going back to the moon

5 | INBOX

Rocket man Down-to-earth Buzz Aldrin, page 4

BRIEFING

9 | THE MOMENT On the sixth anniversary of 9/11, living without fear may be the best remembrance

10 | DASHBOARD U.S. Dems strike against early primaries; a snapshot of world freedom

11 | SPOTLIGHT The path to a denuclearized North Korea may be bumpy—but it's clear

12 | VERBATIM John McCain goes after the youth vote; China denies cybersnooping on the U.S.; a fashion icon bids arrivederci

13 | PEOPLE Jessica Alba's scientifically sexy strut; Letterman and Oprah's latest détente; Britney Spears sings a new tune

14 | MILESTONES

COMMENTARY

17 | MICHAEL KINSLEY Mitt Romney says his religion is private. But voters have a right to know what a candidate believes

Britney Spears Single, and loving it, page 13

PAGE 4 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 | 36 | 37 | 38 | 39 | 40 | 41 | 42 | 43 | 44 | 45 | 46 | 47 | 48 | 49 | 50 | 51 | 52 | 53 | 54

General David Petraeus Iraq's man in the middle, page 18

Slow burn Burma's gas hikes inflame unrest, page 28

On the cover: Photo-illustration for TIME by John Ritter. Insets from left: David Longstreath—AP; Photo Pictorial Publishers Ltd.

THE WELL

COVER STORY

18 | WORLD
One Step Forward
The surge may be working, but it's too soon to say whether Iraq can be salvaged

26 | COMMENTARY
Good News, Bad News
Ryan Crocker, the top U.S. diplomat in Iraq, isn't optimistic about the country's future. That's why Bush should listen to him

28 | ASIA
Inside a Glass Palace
Skyrocketing prices and ostentatious corruption have Burmese taking to the streets in a rare show of public discontent

34 | SOCIETY
See Spot Fight Piracy
A pair of specially trained dogs sniff out fake DVDs in Malaysia

LIFE

35 | SPORT In New Zealand, rugby's more than a game—it's a religion. So fans are praying for the country's legendary but underachieving All Blacks squad to do nothing less than win this year's World Cup

38 | GOING GREEN
Communes used to mean counterculture. But new experiments in environmentally sound group living may point the way to a cleaner future

GLOBAL BUSINESS

41 | AEROSPACE With both a new plane and a new plan, Boeing is flying high again

ARTS

45 | PHOTOGRAPHY A portrait of Hong Kong by a forgotten master

48 | MOVIES The Weinstein brothers, Hollywood's maverick moguls, invade Asia

50 | TUNED IN New karaoke shows celebrate chutzpah rather than talent

Hong Kong Capturing a city's soul, page 45

54 | ESSAY Leona Helmsley's dog Trouble tells Joel Stein about his plans for his $12 million inheritance

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: LEFT: MARK MAJAK—GETTY IMAGES; PHOTO ILLUSTRATION; PUBLISHERS LTD.; HARRICK BROWN—PHOTO PICTORIAL; SCIENCE PHOTO LIBRARY; RIGHT: GETTY IMAGES