

Psychosocial Nursing®

AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

Features

- 20 Eating Disorders Across the Life Span
Learn more about 4 populations at risk for eating disorder behaviors—prevalence, assessment, triggers, and treatments.
Marta Harris, RN; and Edward J. Cumella, PhD
- 28 Social Support Needs of Families Adopting Special Needs Children
You can better provide the relief parents need by learning how they make decisions, developing effective social support programs, and improving community resources.
Deana L. Molinari, PhD, RN, CNS; and Donna Freeborn, MS, APRN
- 36 Why Rural African-American Women who use Cocaine Mistrust Women: The Insider Perspective
These women describe, in their own words, 6 themes that prevent them from enjoying relationships with their peers.
Emma J. Brown, PhD, APRN, BC, FAAN

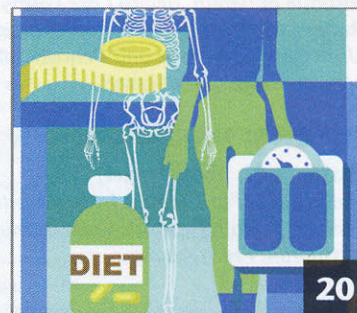

Sections

- 9 Psychopharmacology
Challenges in the Diagnosis and Treatment of Bipolar Depression—Part 1: Assessment
Diagnosing and distinguishing bipolar unipolar depression is difficult. Make assessment easier with these 5 distinctions.
Robert H. Howland, MD

NEW! 13 Youth in Mind

Teens & Body Art
Is this trend a cause for concern? Read about the history, health issues, and reasons for doing it, and decide for yourself.
Teena M. McGuinness, PhD, APRN-BC

- 49 My Side
How to Make a Better “Bad” Kid
One JPN Editorial Board member shares her instructions for creating the types of kids she saw in practice every day.
Linda Cline, RNC

20

28

36

Departments

- 4 Editorial
- 7 News
- 18 Product Update
- 19 Letters to the Editor
- 42 CE Quiz
- 47 Guidelines for Authors
- 52 NARSAD Art