3 Guest editorial
A co-ordinated approach to leadership

4 News

6-8 News analysis
A project to increase older women’s awareness of the risk of breast cancer; the growing problem of malnutrition in the UK

10 Comment
The social care regulator’s final report is essential reading, says Les Bright

12 Comment
Admiral nurse Jackie Tuppen reflects on the importance of information giving in her work in dementia care

13 Comment
It’s time to take stock of our achievements, says Deborah Sturdy

29 Media watch
The BBC follow Terry Pratchett as he ‘lives with Alzheimer’s’; and keeping older people active is big business

14 The one-stop shop memory service
Christian Duffin reports on a new type of memory clinic that is emerging in England

18 Dishing up good practice
The nutrition champions programme in Scotland is making mealtimes special. Jennifer Trueland reports

23 Degrees of confidence
Liz Clark looks at how continuing professional development has furthered the careers of two nurses

27 Ask the experts
What are the dilemmas of prescribing for older people?

34 Promoting good health in people aged over 75 in the community

40 Test your knowledge

16 Don’t quote me
Shirley Law, project manager, Dementia Services Development Centre

30 Journal scan

33 Book reviews

EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD
Professor June Andrews, Dementia Services Development Centre, University of Stirling
Abigail Masters, MSc, RGN, RNT, Assistant Director of Clinical Quality, The Health Foundation
Irene Schofield, MSc, RGN, RNT, Research Fellow in Geontological Nursing, Glasgow Caledonian University
Deborah Sturdy, RN, MSc(Econ), Nurse Adviser, Older People, Department of Health