

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
Abbreviations	xiii

Introduction: choosing midwifery and being a midwife	1
VALERIE FLEMING AND ROSEMARY MANDER

PART I

The midwife and the institution 11

1 Midwifery care in the community during the woman's pregnancy	13
YVONNE FONTEIN
2 Midwifery care with the woman in labour in an institution	29
MIRANDA PAGE
3 Midwifery care of the mother and baby at home	43
ALLISON EWING
4 Midwives and perinatal mental health	55
ELEANOR FORREST

PART 2

The midwife and the wider environment 67

5 The midwife manager	69
GEORGINA SOSA

6	The midwife who is in education	81
	ELMA PAXTON
7	The supervisor of midwives	95
	JEAN DUERDEN
8	The academic midwife	105
	ROSEMARY MANDER
9	The midwife as a researcher	115
	ANS LUYBEN
10	The midwife historian	127
	LINDSAY REID
11	The global midwife	140
	VALERIE FLEMING
12	The independent midwife	154
	NESSA McHUGH
13	A male midwife's perspective	167
	DENIS WALSH
14	The midwife who is not a mother	180
	ROSEMARY MANDER
15	The midwife who is an author	191
	PENNY CURTIS
16	The ex-midwife	204
	ELAINE HAYCOCK-STUART
	Conclusion	217
	ROSEMARY MANDER AND VALERIE FLEMING
	Glossary	223
	Index	225